160. Mary Cantwell 25 years old. Husband and herself a most suspicious pair: both were in bed when the Visitor called yesterday, Sunday, at 3 O'clock P.M. He looking as if he was sleeping off the effects of Saturday night's debauchery: red nose, redder Eys, with other indications of intemperance, Irish. h.c. He says he hurt his back by falling into a Well, which in addition to running sores in his feet, renders him quite unable to work. This is a case which should be referred to our Medical Officer to examine closely, so as to ascertain if his present condition be the effects of intemperate habits or not, because the Visitor strongly suspects that if he would only refrain from drink, his sores and lame back would soon be cured, If the Visitor is mistaken, and the Doctor believes his story to be true, he will recommend Wood and Bread, but not otherwise, and this must solely account of the latter ones.
161. Hugh Smith. See report of last Winter, This man has all the symptoms of an inveterate Coper: to be sure, he exhibits a temperance certificate of having taken the pledge last April, but the morose hue of his nasal extremity seems to certify still more certainly, that he has not kept it: he shakes and totters and is unable to walk straight, or keep himself erect, and all this on Sunday, at 4 O'clock in the afternoon. He declares that these are symptoms of disease. The Visitor respectfully suggests that he be introduced to our Medical friend, to see if he or the Visitor be correct in their respective and conflicting conclusions, if he be right, let him have Wood and Bread but not otherwise. Boy 2 and girl 7 months old. Four of these children are in the House of Providence, and three remain with her, the oldest is dying; she is of course unable to earn a living; she tried to make a trifling by keeping a little shop, but a far better shop close by took all the business of the neighbourhood, and she failed, she seems to have been well brought up, the Visitor recommends the most that the Committee will be pleased to do for them, for truly she is a most deserving object. To have 8 lb of bread, and Wood when she moves to her new quarters and brings a note from Capt. Dunlop.

165. Pamela Mulloy. 307 Luce St. East. Husband deserted her nearly two years ago. She belongs to the Methodist Church. Has two children, a Boy 4 years and girl 2 years. She endeavours to support herself by her needle, but cannot make enough to pay for rent fuel and firing. She seems a respectable young woman, and the Visitor thinks some Wood now, and again at the end of February, would be well bestowed.

166. Bridget Stinson, No 122 Duchess Street, a very decent old Widow Woman, goes out to scrub and wash, but sprained her wrist some weeks ago, and has not been able to do much lately. She has a Nephew living with her, a young man of 27 years of age. a Painter by trade, who has always helped to support her - but he met with a very serious accident, (which the Visitor himself witnessed) at the time of the visit of the Prince of Wales, he fell from the scaffolding of the Orange Arch, and which he was at work, and was so much injured, that his recovery for some time, was very doubtful, and he is still unfit for work of any kind. 167. Isabella Caspe No 140 Duchess Street. Widow. Church of England. 4 children at home, Boy 13. Boy 9. girl 7. girl 5. She was not at home when the Visitor called, but from what he learned from the person in whose house she has a couple of rooms, he would consider her very deserving of relief - She was formerly in very comfortable circumstances - Her husband having at one time kept the principal Inn at Holland Landing. He has been dead for several years and she has supported herself by scrubbing and washing, and going out occasionally to nurse sick people. The Neighbours all speak of her as being very industrious, and unwilling to be dependant on any one for assistance if she can possibly avoid it, The Visitor recommends her for Wood twice.

This Woman has a Cripple Son a most wretched pitiable object, utterly incapable of helping or taking care of himself — being an idiot as well as a cripple. She is living with a Man and his Wife of the Name of Horner, poor labouring people — Some charitable Ladies allow the Horners a small Sum a month for keeping Mrs Connell and her Son. but they are pretty tired of their charge. Mrs Connell might perhaps have a loaf of Bread per Week given to her for a few Weeks, and the Visitor told Horner that if he chooses to go up to saw some Wood, he might be allowed a quarter Cord, as he gives the use of his Store to Mrs Connell.

170. Elizabeth Meehan, next to No 14 King Street east. Methodist. Husband deserted her, she does not know whether he is dead or alive. She has 4 children at home girl 9. Boy 8. Boy 6 and girl 4. Her Mother an old woman lives with her — She washes and Scrubs, but work is slack and fuel is dear, and she can't manage to rub through the Winter without assistance. Visitor recommends Wood twice, and Bread for five Weeks.

171. Jane Bergen No 11 Ontario Street. The Visitor does not think that this is a case deserving of assistance. She was exceedingly drunk when he passed the House some Weeks ago — and at present she has a pretty good supply of Wood on hand.

172. Margaret Cloane in Case 952 in 1860. recommended for a small allowance of bread for four weeks only.

173. Mary Carty, gave her number to Visitor as 136 Nelson Street, which is not the right one, should she apply she might be allowed a little Bread, as she seems to be in great distress, and when she brings her right number the Visitor will report on her case.
